

My name is Kelmanovich Dmitry, and I am the co-founder and managing partner of FLY TRAVEL USA LLC, which successfully operates in the USA under the Fly Luxury brand.

Two years ago, I reached out to Xsort and personally to Alexander with a request for potential collaboration. We had two key objectives: developing our own CRM system that would fully meet our needs and creating a modern, adaptive website with subsequent integration of all incoming requests into the CRM.

From the very beginning, our interaction with Xsort was marked by a high level of professionalism, attention to detail, and a deep understanding of our business processes. Alexander and his team not only helped us bring our initial ideas to life but also suggested a number of valuable solutions that improved the system's functionality and simplified the work of our sales department.

The website created by Xsort has become an essential tool for attracting clients, and the CRM system integrated with incoming requests has significantly increased the efficiency of lead processing and data management.

I can confidently recommend Xsort and Alexander as reliable and professional partners capable of solving complex tasks and taking a business to the next level.

Sincerely,
Kelmanovich Dmitry,
Co-founder and managing partner
FLY TRAVEL USA LLC
